Downtown discussed

Ways to achieve step-by-step progress in Downtown Granite City, setting off a chain reaction leading to full revitalization, were explored at a meeting Thursday evening.

Participants included Mayor Paul Schuler; the city's Community Resources Commission headed by Carl E. Mathias; and the Chamber of Commerce Downtown Committee led by Earl Harris.

Several dozen specific proposals and concerns were reviewed, with the gathering seeking solutions and cooperative ways to implement them.

One possibility is property acquisition to create an open area, perhaps centered by a fountain display.

Also discussed was the prospect of placing into effect some of the new traffic controls and routings proposed earlier in connection with the downtown mall project.

The mall itself has been stalled by lack of unanimity in a volunteer approach by property owners, and by uncertainty about ability to enforce in the courts a tax program assessed against the owners.

The Resources Commission appointed by Mayor Schuler seeks to develop feasible methods to spark Downtown resurgence, attract industry, solve drainage needs and deal with other issues affecting many residents.

It was noted Thursday evening that numerous business establishments have carried out major exterior and interior remodeling projects, and that traffic flow and other improvements in the business district could prompt other landlords and tenants to refurbish stores and buildings.

City officials were praised at the meeting for their decision Feb. 18 to limit parking at meters to two hours in some areas.

Venice school election win called vital

A shutdown of the Venice school district because of financial problems will confront school officials this year, but a referendum proposal to increase the district's educational fund tax rate is approved by voters next Friday, John Pier, superintendent of Venice School District 3, warned today.

Pier said the Venice district will face an $800,000 deficit by the end of the current school year on June 30 and that he can see no alternative to closing the schools unless additional revenue is provided by an 80-cent increase in the tax rate.

Voters will ballot from noon until 7 p.m. Friday at two polling places on the proposed rate increase in the education fund. If approved, the boost would raise the educational fund rate maximum to $2.85. The rate now is pegged at $2.05 per $100 assessed valuation.

Pier said the financial dilemma in which the Venice school district finds itself is a parallel to that of Belleville School District 118, which is scheduled to close its schools April 1 due to voter rejection of a proposed 49-cent tax rate increase on Feb. 9.

Friday's vote will be the third attempt within the past year to obtain voter approval of a rate increase at Venice. A proposal to raise the educational fund rate by $1.20 to a maximum of $3.25 was rejected in a referendum June 30, 1973, followed last Dec. 7 by defeat of a referendum on a proposal for an increase of 80 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

The Venice Board of Education said last week that the district borrowed $260,000 last year to meet educational fund expenses, in addition to $260,000 obtained from working cash fund bonds.

In addition to this debt, the board said, the district will have to borrow approximately $375,000 to meet expenses for the remainder of this school year through June 30, resulting in a total debt of $635,000.

Without additional tax revenue to meet this debt in part, and to pay steadily mounting costs of operation, the district would be faced with a school shutdown, according to Pier.

Superintendent said the district would have to approve "drastic cuts" in operating costs even to complete the remainder of this school year if the tax rate proposal is defeated Friday.

"If the rate increase is turned down, I can see no way that we could open schools in the fall for

Chouteau tax waste alleged

"Twenty per cent of Chouteau Township's town fund goes for needless expense," William Thoele, a District 16 candidate for the Madison County Board, charged today.

"Chouteau taxpayers pay twice to have the same taxes collected. Although the county has now assumed collection of local taxes, Chouteau Township still pays a tax collector to do the same job.

"Since most residents send their taxes directly to the county, there is simply no need for these taxpayers to pay for a local collector," Thoele asserted.

He continued, "The township budget was prepared and the expenditure for the collector's salary was approved by the township's Board of Auditors, headed by Supervisor Walter Sparks, also a candidate for the County Board.

"The collector's salary, after the township paid withholding and Social Security taxes, was $7,552.

"The township also had to pay for a $95,000 bond and for purchase of insurance for funds handled by the collector.

Thoele said he conferred with County Treasurer George Musso and was told that only four other townships also have tax collectors.

He said the $7,552 includes $5,214 salary to the collector, $1,260 office help, $556 postage, $250 travel, $200 rent, $175 convention expense, $32 printing and $3 miscellaneous.

"With the ever-higher taxes, our government officials must eliminate 'waste and duplication,'" Thoele said.

"Taxpayers simply cannot afford the burden of jobs kept on the public payroll purely for patronage benefits."

"If Mr. Sparks approves of this on our township level, how can he possibly help the already-in-debt county as a County Board member?"

United Way studies new approaches

Officers for 1974 were elected—and revised procedures were outlined—Thursday afternoon at the annual membership meeting of the Tri-Cities Area United Way. October 1973 campaign netted a record $416,331.

It was noted that several new approaches will be tried, including an altered budgeting process and an analysis of ways to define and carry out community services.

Part of the new emphasis will be to discover any existing Quad-City needs not currently being met.

Paul H. Kelly, manager of the A. O. Smith Corp. auto frame plant, was re-elected as United Way president.

An A. O. Smith employee 23 years, he served in Milwaukee in 1951-58, Granite City 1958-62, Cleveland 1962-64 and Granite City again from 1964 until the present.

Kelly became manufacturing superintendent in 1968 and plant manager Aug. 1, 1971.

Leo Schermer, an owner of Schermer Brothers Market, Madison, was re-elected as a United Way vice-president.

New officers are Mitchell B. Milonski, works manager of American Steel Foundries plant in Granite City, vice-president of the United Way; Irvin Slate Jr., an attorney with the Lauder, Robertson and Konzen law firm, secretary; and James Foley, auditor of the First National Bank in Madison, United Way treasurer.

Retiring officers are Vice-President Robert Edmonds, assistant to the president of Granite City Steel; Secretary Ralph Morris II, operator of the Morris Realty Co., and Treasurer John "Jerry" McDonald, vice-president and cashier of Granite City Trust and Savings Bank.

Morris presided at the meeting, held at the YMCA.

A statement by President Kelly noted that "the past year has seen several changes in our organization—changes that we hope will affect the quality of life in our community."

"The efforts of Bill Winter and his dedicated team are certainly to be applauded. The campaign goal of $400,000 was reached and surpassed."

"The final figure was $416,331.76, the highest amount ever raised in our Tri-Cities area. Our citizens should certainly be congratulated for their generous response to the needs of their community."

"Our agencies and their boards of directors should also be congratulated for their support of the campaign effort. This year's drive was indeed a team effort of the total community."

"I would like to acknowledge the dedicated service of the Budget and Allocation Committee, which spent many hours

Gitcho hailed as world star

Cultural exchanges across the Iron Curtain can cover a multitude of skilled endeavors, involving everyone from pianists to astronauts.

The definition was broadened further during January and February with a tour of Russia and Poland by a troupe of ten American wrestlers, led by Jan Gitcho of Arlington Heights, near State Route 55.

The 125-pound local grappler proved to be the outstanding member of the U. S. team coached by James Peckham, athletic director at Emerson College, Boston, Mass.

He defeated the U. S. S. R. national champion in Moscow 5-4, won at Kiev by a resounding 22-3 margin and earned a 4-4 draw at Minsk.

Gitcho then beat Poland's national champion at Warsaw 15-4 and pinned his opponent at Poznan, Poland, sparking his team to a 5-4 victory in the tour's finale.

In addition to his 2-0 record in Poland, Gitcho was credited with four wins, a tie and two losses in the Americans as the Russians' principal adversaries.

The candidate said his other on a quick pin call that did not appear to be justified even by the European rules being utilized.

While handicapped by differing rules and wrestling styles, the Amateur Athletic Union entrants conceded that they were beaten in Russia by a team which was superior "at that point in time." They think it may be a different story when a U. S. S. R. squad tours the U. S. this spring or when international competition is resumed at World Cup bouts in Spain.

Although finding many aspects of Russia drab and dull, intensifying his high regard for the United States, the Granite City High School and SIUE mat product found the Russians fully up-to-date in their use of television, films and note-taking in analyzing the weak and strong points of each opposing wrestler.

This thorough approach and an innate ability to go quickly to a new move when one hold fails impressed the Americans as the Russians' principal advantages.

Judge Harrison, assigned here, unopposed in March

Moses W. Harrison II is unopposed in the Third Judicial Circuit Democratic primary election March 19 for a circuit judge position, the vacancy created by the death of Judge James O. Monroe Jr. Harrison currently serves as a circuit judge by appointment.

Born March 30, 1932, in Collinsville, he attended public schools in Collinsville for 12 years. He received a bachelor of arts degree from Colorado College in 1954, majoring in political science, and an LL.B. degree from Washington University, St. Louis, in 1958.

During the time he was in college and law school, he worked in fields unrelated to the law, including restaurant work, cubing concrete blocks and driving trucks. He holds an honorable withdrawal card from the Teamsters' union.

Upon graduation from law school, Harrison took the bar examination in Missouri and Illinois and was admitted to practice in both states in 1959. He maintained a law office in Collinsville from the date of graduation from law school until Sept. 4, 1973, when he was

"Through my years in the practice, I have attempted to be active in the organized bar," he says. "Since my appointment, I have been serving the Circuit Court in Division 6, Granite City."

"It has become very clear to me that, truly, the last stronghold of liberty for the individual is in the courts."

"Also, if we are to hope to have a democratic system that is stable, we must have courts that are respected by the people."

"I am aware of the tremendous problems that face our courts today. It may be that there has been no other time in the history of our country that our concepts of justice and an independent judiciary have been met by so many and diverse sources of challenge and criticism."

"However, I am convinced that our individual rights as citizens will prevail through a strong judiciary, and I would like to offer and use whatever abilities I may have to further that purpose."

Mormon church provides own aid plan, Kiwanians told

Members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon) have their own welfare program to help each other in a time of need without aid from any state or federal program, Kiwanian Melvin L. Gillie told members of his club Thursday at their breakfast meeting in Charlie's Restaurant.

Gillie, who is bishop of the Fairview Heights Ward, said that each church member contributes $3.60 to the church's welfare program each year, in addition to his regular 10 percent tithe.

Gillie related that Brigham Young University at Provo, Utah, has 25,000 students, and is operated without government money. Members of the church are encouraged to participate in what is called the "home storage" program in which from six months to a year's food supply is stored by a member's family for emergencies.

Gillie explained that the Mormon church, which was founded in 1830, is divided into regions, districts, stakes and wards, with 204 members needed to form a ward.

Four members of the Belleville Kiwanis attended the meeting Thursday along with Kiwanis Lt. Gov. Roy Green of Edwardsville.

The Breakfast Kiwanis will hold a business meeting Thursday at 7 a.m. at Charlie's.

State vehicle fuel use cut

Fuel consumption by state vehicles was cut 12 percent during the second half of 1973, as compared with the last six months of 1972. The state saved 885,486 gallons of gasoline in six months.

From July through December 1973, the 8,000 vehicles in the executive branch of government used 7,078,851 gallons of gasoline, 7,994,549 gallons had been used during the final six months of the previous year.

$900 million construction program by Illinois Power

Illinois Power Company on Friday announced a five-year construction program extending through 1978 of more than $900 million.

In the company's annual report, mailed to shareholders Friday, the combination electric-natural gas utility said that more than $122 million will be spent on the program this year. The company serves a 15,000 square-mile area of the state, including the Quad-Cities.

Key items in the five-year program are completion of a 600,000-kilowatt third coal-fired electric generation unit at the Baldwin power station in 1975; construction of a sixth coal-fired, of 460,000 kilowatts at the Havana power station, scheduled for 1978 operation; and construction expenditures for the first two 950,000-kilowatt nuclear generating units at a site near Clinton. First of the two nuclear units is scheduled for operation in 1980.

Total cash needs for the five-year period, 1974-1978, are estimated at $975 million, the report said, including paying of bank loans and refunding of prior bond issues. Of this, the company expects to generate internally $320 million, leaving about $655 million to be derived from new financing.

In his letter of transmittal of the annual report, Wendell J. Kelley, president, pointed out an increase of 5.5 per cent in earnings per common share for the company in the last year. Earnings per common share in 1972 were $2.38; the year 1973 produced $2.51 per common share.

The president said part of the increase was due to a 5 per cent increase in electric rates granted by the Illinois Commerce Commission last May. That increase, he said, is not satisfactory, and the report predicts that increases will be asked in both gas and electric rates this year.

The company, Kelley said, is in a strong position insofar as electric energy is concerned. He estimated that in 1974 more than 90 per cent of Illinois' power electric generation will come from coal.

"We are confident," he said, "that our commitment to coal and nuclear generation will prove to be the best position for our company."

"We believe the American people have shown that they understand the urgency to conserve energy," he continued in his letter.

"We strongly believe, however, that to meet the country's energy requirements, other remedial steps are needed. Among them are:

"1. A relaxation of pollution control regulations by state and federal regulatory bodies to permit the use of our nation's vast reserves of coal for electric generation.

"2. A speed-up of the nuclear power plant licensing and construction process.

"3. Realistic or free-market prices for natural gas at the wellhead.

"4. Pipelines to deliver the huge known reserves of oil and natural gas from Alaska and northern Canada.

"5. An accelerated program of offshore leasing and drilling for oil and natural gas not only in the Gulf of Mexico but in all coastal waters."

The annual report, while outlining measures taken to increase a peak-day deliverability of natural gas, termed the outlook for future increases in gas supplies "discouraging."

It cited investments by the company in various efforts of pipeline suppliers to provide new sources of natural gas.

Madison County Federal Savings assets rise 12%

Assets of Madison County Federal Savings and Loan Association at the close of 1973 stood at $30,454,899, a 12.7 per cent increase over a year ago, it was reported by A. H. Froemling, president, at the yearly meeting of shareholders last week.

During the past year, Madison County Federal Savings and Loan paid $894,904 in dividends to its savings depositors and added $127,917 to its reserves, making total reserves $1,228,925.

At the annual meeting of shareholders, directors who were re-elected for 1974 included A. F. Buente, B. B. Dunlap, A. H. Froemling, Dr. K. J. Hillmer, E. L. Hopkins, J. L. Raincheff, J. W. Reese, W. C. Raincheff and Gilbert Roach.

In addition to Froemling, officers who were re-elected were Buente, vice-president, Roach, vice-president, and N. J. Bridger, secretary-treasurer.

Additionally, J. L. Winning was elected assistant vice-president and Joyce N. Corey, assistant secretary.

"We are happy to report that 1973 was a year of progress for Madison County Federal Savings and Loan Association despite a continuation of serious inflation and the emergence of the energy crisis," Froemling commented.

He said that the most important development of 1973 affecting the association was a new policy of monetary stringency adopted in early July. This produced an immediate and general rise in interest rates, a decline in savings deposits and another "tight money" period for the mortgage market, it was noted.

"The prospects for 1974 are somewhat cloudy at this moment. Much depends on the type of progress the nation is able to make in its fight against inflation, the energy crisis and the other problems facing us," he said.

Froemling reported that during 1973 Madison County Federal Savings and Loan financed 137 homes and apartments in and around the Quad-Cities. In total, the association invested $3,056,000 in mortgage loans.

"In response to the increased competition in the money market," Froemling concluded, "the association increased rates on savings accounts and certificates of deposit. These rates we are paying are now the highest on record."

"Our savings deposits began to improve during the fourth quarter of 1973, and the supply of mortgage lending funds continues to be available for good, qualified loans."

Optimists hear circuit judges

Improvements that have been made in the handling of the work load of the Third Judicial Circuit Court were explained by Judges William L. Beatty of Granite City and Victor Mosele of Alton at the Thursday noon meeting of the Optimist Club in the YMCA.

The judges explained that added facilities and an expanded staff, have expedited court hearings.

The judges emphasized that the laws are made "by the legislatures and not by the courts" and the judges can only follow the "law of the land."

Optimist Chapter Baker had Lt. Joseph Nemeth of the Granite City Police Department as his guest.

A report by Mike Tharp of the YMCA staff said that 269 children participated in the special optimist-sponsored Saturday morning children's program. The club voted to extend the program and sponsor children from Marshall School on March 23 and Lake School on March 24. Funds used for the program are from the Camlot auction sale.

Circuit Judge John Gitchoff unopposed in March primary

Circuit Judge John Gitchoff of the Quad-Cities is unopposed in the March 19 primary election for a Democratic nomination as circuit judge.

By appointment, he already is serving in the judicial position formerly held by I. H. Streep III in the Third Judicial Circuit.

Gitchoff was a member of a Granite City law firm and was corporation counsel of the City of Madison until September 1971, when he accepted the appointment as a circuit judge.

His civic service had included the chairmanship of the Madison County Building Commission. He was chosen by the Illinois Supreme Court after the retirement of Judge Streep.

Gitchoff had been a member of the Madison city legal staff since 1961 and was head of the County Building Commission since it was created in 1970.

He was the senior partner in the law firm of Galtis, Filloff and Gitchoff at the time he advanced to the judicial bench.

He seeks a full six-year term in this year's balloting.

A native of Granite City and a lifelong resident of the Quad-Cities area, Judge Gitchoff received his law degree at the University of Missouri in 1956 and was licensed to practice in the Illinois and Missouri courts and in the U. S. District and U. S. Supreme courts.

He currently heads the Criminal Court Division of the Judicial Circuit.

The Rev. David B. Maxton performed the 5 o'clock evening service on Feb. 16 in a candlelight setting.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Biggs, Rural Route Four, Edwardsville, formerly of Granite City. Parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harper of Prairie du Rocher, Ill., also are former local residents.

Mrs. Isabel Schmidt, organist, accompanied the soloist, Tom Collins, who sang "Colour My World," "Speak Softly Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Miss Debbie Moore of Edwardsville was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Diane Fore and Miss Paula Dancos.

The former Miss Biggs chose a gown of dacton polyester organza fashioned in a beribboned Empire silhouette and trimmed with sequined scalloped Chantille. Full bishop sleeves were gathered into deep cuffs and lace extended the full length of the detachable chapel train.

She wore a long veil of bridal illusion outlined in scalloped Chantille and she carried a nose gay of red, Sweetheart roses and white baby breath with red and white streamers.

The honor attendant and maids were dressed identically in floor length gowns of royal blue double knit. The Empire waist was enhanced with a wide midriff band, edged in lace, and a white lace yoke detailed the high lace neckline.

The sleeves were long and straight and defined with lace.

Friends and relatives, several from out-of-town, greeted the newlyweds at a reception held in the church hall immediately after the ceremony. Miss Barbara Lloyd presided at the guest book and the servers were Miss Pam Smith and Miss Janice Biggs, cousins of the bride, and Miss Judy Eihansen. "A February Farewell" was the title of a play focusing upon the classroom experiences of a youth studying the life of Abraham Lincoln prior to Lincoln's election as the 16th president of the United States. The principal roles were portrayed by Rhonda Williams as the teacher and David Jones as the student.

Patriotic songs presented by the children, included: "America," "America the Beautiful," "The Battle Hymn

TRI-CITIES INDEPENDENT INSURANCE AGENTS URGE YOU TO READ THE FOLLOWING ABOUT FLOOD INSURANCE

The possibility in the next several months of severe flooding exists again. The National Weather Service has issued a flood warning for the Missouri River. The Service also reported that melting snow and heavy rains were causing fast rises in the Mississippi River and its tributaries. Sandbagging has already begun in certain areas in the metropolitan area. The Army Corps of Engineers, while emphasizing that the 1974 river levels will depend on how heavy spring rains are, has already warned that present conditions are all time before the flood. ... district engineers have been alerted to prepare for possible flooding that might match the destructive floods of last year.

If you had flood damage last year, you know that most commercial insurance policies and all homeowner insurance policies exclude flood damage. Many properties damaged in last year's flooding have never been repaired because of lack of funds. ... the result is decreased property values.

BUT THIS YEAR FLOOD INSURANCE IS AVAILABLE IN MANY AREAS IN ILLINOIS. RATES ARE LOW AND LIMITS OF COVERAGE ARE SUFFICIENTLY HIGH TO MEET THE NEEDS OF MOST BUSINESSES AND RESIDENTS EXPOSED TO FLOODING.

IF YOUR PROPERTY IS EXPOSED TO FLOODING, APPLY FOR COVERAGE NOW. THERE IS A MANDATORY 15 DAY WAITING PERIOD AFTER YOU APPLY FOR COVERAGE BEFORE THE INSURANCE GOES INTO EFFECT.

The insurance industry and the federal government have set up the National Flood Insurance Association (NFIA). This organization provides flood insurance, issues policies, and settles claims for all insureds in communities that meet certain flood control standards. Rates are low only because they are subsidized by the federal government. Under the National Flood Insurance Program.

IF A RESIDENT FAILS TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF COVERAGE UNDER THIS PLAN, HE MAY FOREGO THE RIGHT TO INSURE HIS FUND IN THE EVENT OF SUBSEQUENT FLOODING!

If you have a business in a flood exposed area, you can insure your buildings up to $100,000 and you can insure your contents up to an additional $100,000. If you own residential property, you can insure a single family home up to $25,000. ... residential contents up to $10,000.

FLOOD INSURANCE RATES
Single Family Residential Limit $25,000, 25¢ per $100
Other Residential Contents, Residential Limit $10,000, 35¢ per $100
Non-Residential Limit $100,000, 40¢ per $100
Contents, Non-Residential Limit $100,000, 75¢ per $100

The year was 1939. The world was preparing for another World War, and the Fighting Warriors of Granite City High School edged East St. Louis, 26-25, on total points to capture the first Illinois High School Association Sectional Wrestling Tournament.

Granite City went on to capture 27 sectional titles and five runnerup spots in the years that spanned 1940 to 1973. From 1954 to 1970 the Warriors took the championship 17 consecutive years before having their winning streak broken by Springfield Southeast in 1971.

The local school, now GCHS South, showed the colors of a true champion by winning the crown two years in a row, 1972-1973. Saturday, Feb. 23, 1974, was no exception, as South posted 96 team points to capture the 35th Annual Sectional Wrestling Tournament, on its home mats.

The Warriors emerged from the tournament this weekend with three individual weight class champions, four runnerup wrestlers, one third place and two fourth place matmen.

South's three weight class champions earned berths in this weekend's state wrestling meet which begins at 1 p.m. Friday, March 1, at the University of Illinois Assembly Hall in Champaign.

Warriors who earned the right to advance to the state tournament (finishing position in sectional meet indicated) are: 98 pound — Woody Halbrook, second; 112 — Phil Lapinski, second; 119 — John Niebur, champion; 126 — Don Heath, second; 138 — Don Hasty, second; 145 — Dave Rushing, champion, and 155 — Brian Wilson, champion.

Niebur pinned Carlos Weston of East St. Louis in 5:04 in the championship final. Rushing decided Don Reuter of Lincoln, Ill., 11-4, and Wilson decided Don Smith of Wood River 16-9.

Unlike past years, Granite

City will be represented at the state meet by not one, but two high schools. The new Granite City High School North made its first year impression on varsity wrestling by producing one individual champion in the sectional meet, 112 pound Rudy Pyle. Pyle decided South's Lapinski 1-0 in the championship bout.

North placed sixth Saturday with 19½ points, which were earned by only three wrestlers, 98 pound Randy Hartline, 145 pound Bill Carr and Pyle. Hartline placed third in his weight class after losing 3-2 to South's Halbrook. Carr was eliminated from the competition in semi-final action when he suffered a dislocated shoulder in a match with Belleville East's Bob Baldwin.

When Pyle decided Lapinski for the championship, North's head mentor Walt Whitaker hugged the young matman and said, "I told you that you could do it if you wanted to."

"The key," Whitaker told the Press-Record, "was that Rudy was able to ride him throughout the second period, preventing Lapinski from escaping."

"I wasn't all that surprised," concluded Whitaker, "I felt at the beginning of the year that he had what it takes to be a champion."

For the Warriors of South, Coach William Schmitt could only mutter, "I'm pleased. We did better than I actually thought we would."

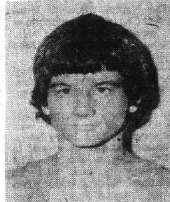

Filling in the finishing positions between first place South and sixth place North were: Belleville East and Springfield Southeast, second place tie, 24½ points; Roxana third, 32; Edwardsville fourth, 25; and East St. Louis Lincoln fifth, 22.

Rounding out the remaining positions were: Lincoln, Ill., seventh, 18; Belleville West, eighth, 15½; Quincy, ninth, 15; East St. Louis, 10th, 13; Highland, 11th, 12; Springfield, 12th, 10; and Wood River, 13th, nine. Trailing were Belleville Altoft, Jacksonville, Cahokia and Hillsboro with six each.

Madison closes 17-8 regular season

The Madison Trojans are preparing for next week's Dupo Regional Tournament trying to remedy the type of errors which ended their regular season competition on a losing note at home Friday. Madison played host to Central of St. Louis and was downed by the visitors for the second time this season. The final score Friday was 66-56.

"Central owes its victory," commented Trojan Coach Larry Graham, "to a 6-8 sophomore named John Parker.

"All through the final period," Graham said, "Parker was knocking down almost all of our shots which would have been sure baskets."

Madison jumped to a 32-51 lead going into the final period after trailing Central 19-17 and was downed by the visitors for the second time this season. The final score Friday was 66-56.

The Trojans shot 48 per cent from the field against Central, hitting on 22 of 46 field goals and were 12 of 24 from the free throw line while committing 15 fouls and the same number of turnovers. Madison recovered 28 rebounds in the game, 23 belonging to the enemy.

Central, led in scoring by Parker with 27 points, connected with 30 of 52 field goals, 12 of 18 in the charity tosses, and fouled against Madison 18 times while turning the ball over to the local squad 17 times. Central pulled down 48 rebounds, 28 of them on Madison missed shots.

Double-coverage by Central in Madison players resulted in the following Trojans posting points—Kelvin Boyd 18, Ron Henke 15, Ron Glasper 14, Chris Stanley 16, Alvin Wiggall two, and several from Franklin one.

Madison, now 17-8 this season, drew a first round bye as the top-seeded team in next week's sectional contests, and will not see action until 7 p.m. Thursday when the Trojans meet the winners of today's Columbia-St. Henry game.

Dupo cage tourney opens Tuesday

First round action of the 1974 Illinois High School Association Class A Basketball Regional at Dupo gets underway tomorrow with Columbia and St. Henry of Belleville meeting at 7 p.m.

Venice, 22-3, takes on Brooklyn Wednesday at 7 p.m., and Lebanon meets the host team at 8:30 p.m. in Wednesday's second contest.

Top-seeded Madison drew a first-round bye and will meet the winner of tomorrow's contest at 7 p.m. Thursday. The winners of Wednesday's competition will face each other Thursday at 8:30 p.m. in a semi-final game.

The Madison Trojans, with a 17-8 season record, fell 66-56 to Central of St. Louis Friday in Madison's final regular season game. Trojan Coach Larry Graham says he is very cautious about some of the teams in the regional tournament.

"First we have to get by Columbia," Graham told the Press-Record. "The Trojans lost to Lebanon this season by only one point, and Lebanon has a real fine team.

"We can not underestimate any of them," he continued, "if we have a bad shooting night, then possibly anybody can beat us," but, he concluded, "to win we are going to have to stop the inside game of Venice and the outside shooting of Lebanon."

If the Trojans capture Thursday's contest, they will meet the winner of Thursday's 8:30 p.m. game for the regional title Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Mitchell PTA spaghetti supper

The Mitchell School PTA will sponsor a Spaghetti Supper and School Carnival Thursday in the school gymnasium.

Mr. Sam Viviano of Viviano's Tom Boy Store donated his time in preparing the spaghetti sauce.

Martinez shooting strong, but South cagers drop two

The cage Warriors of Granite City High School South lost 77-42 at Edwardsville Friday, and 75-52 at East St. Louis Saturday. At Edwardsville, the Tigers dominated the quarter scoring throughout the game, 25-11, 42-17, 53-26 and the final score. Edwardsville was led in scoring by the 26 points of Greg Ahart. The Tigers posted 30 field goals, 17 free throws and committed 16 fouls.

The Warriors hit on 18 from the field, six from the charity line, and fouled 18 times. Nine players earned points for the local squad—Mike Martinez and Jim Nolen with eight apiece, Ken Bertrand at seven, Tom Schooley six, Rick Fancher, Kirk Champion and Mike Mezo, four each, and Bob Hutchings one.

Martinez tallied 26 points to lead the Warriors' scoring effort against East St. Louis, but the host squad outscored South, 22-12, 38-24, 56-40 and the final score.

Hubert Houseman earned 16 points for East St. Louis. Other than Martinez, South pointmakers were Nolan with 14 and Fancher and Champion with six apiece.

East St. Louis outscored South at both the freshman and sophomore grade levels on the Cahokia home court Thursday—the freshmen losing 65-33 and the sophomore squad falling 55-30.

Cahokia outscored the sophomores in every period, 20-13, 23-18, 48-26, and the final. Frank Holmes' led the local team to 16 for the host school.

South's final two games of the regular season are Friday at 8 p.m. against GCHS North and Saturday at 8 p.m. in a make-up contest here with Belleville. East St. Louis' game will be played at the South gymnasium.

South underclassmen outscored Granite City High School South cagers fell victims to Cahokia at both the freshman and sophomore grade levels on the Cahokia home court Thursday—the freshmen losing 65-33 and the sophomore squad falling 55-30.

Steeler cagers top Oilers, but Kahoks prove too tough

The Steelers of Granite City High School North split a pair of cage contests on the road this weekend, winning 79-47 at West River Friday but then dropping a 70-57 decision Saturday to Collinsville.

Now 12-9 for the season, North jumped into an early 23-10 first quarter lead over the Oilers and was never headed in the first two periods of play, 39-18 and 57-38.

Dave Schneke set the pace in Steeler scoring with 19 points. Larry Jones earned 14, Darrell Page, Greg Gaudin, Don Nix, eight, Gene Logas and Mike Waldo earned six apiece, and Otto Seebold two.

North outscored Wood River from the field 35-9 but the Oilers retaliated with 23 points from the foul line to North's nine. Rick Downer was high point maker for the host team with 19.

Many bicycles, few bikeways

This spring, many travelers may turn their four wheels in for two. And with the price of gasoline and concern for pollution on the upswing, it may be a wise choice for some.

The popularity of the bicycle is documented by the industry's sales figures.

Last year, an estimated 15 million bicycles were sold across the country, and the forecast is 17 million for this year.

"It has been estimated that one-third of the population of Illinois owns at least one of them."

To meet the growing needs of the Illinois bicyclist, a law passed last year mandates the development of a comprehensive bicycle program which is to include bikeways and walkways. However, the accompanying appropriations bill for construction of physical aspects of the plan did not pass.

The bill designates the Department of Transportation as the state agency responsible for developing and coordinating the bikeways program.

"To fulfill this mandate, the Department of Transportation met with members of an Interagency Council in December, 1972, and it was decided that the development of the plan could best be carried out through a task force group, according to Melvin Larsen of the DOT's bureau of local roads.

"This group will work on recommended policies and a conceptual approach for the development of a bicycle route plan."

"Since the December meeting, a series of task force meetings has been conducted.

"Right now we are attempting to identify what we have, what is needed, how we go about satisfying these needs and what it is going to cost," explained Tom Mracek of the DOT's bureau of planning, and a member of the task force.

Some of the objectives of the bill include education, research, registration, standards and a bicycle plan," he continued.

"We are taking each one individually and applying the four areas of identification."

One of the ingredients necessary in compiling a comprehensive plan, as suggested by the Interagency Council, is public involvement.

"We intend to have thorough involvement," said Mracek. "We are working on just how to carry it out."

There are no timetables set up for implementation, but the project is moving along "as quickly as possible."

"It appears that the major thrust of bicycle activity in Illinois at this time will be restricted to planning efforts; however, as the program is developed, revenue sources for physical construction will be sought," Larsen commented.

A possible source of revenue is the Federal Highway Act of 1973.

Beckett play will be given

Samuel Beckett's "Waiting for Godot" will be presented Feb. 28, March 1 and 2 by the University Theater at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. Current time is 8:15 p.m. in the Communications Building theater.

Billed as a "tragicomedy," the intermingling of vaudeville comedy with the absurdity of the human condition makes "Waiting for Godot" a masterpiece of genius, according to Lynn Kluth, SIUE professor of speech and theater.

"Even though the play is rarely produced, because of its exceptionally difficult acting style, it has been performed more than 20 countries and has been translated into more than 23 languages," Kluth said. The paperback edition is in its fifth printing.

Featured in the cast will be Brian Erdmann of Pittsfield; George Lasswell, Alton; Noel F. Taylor, St. Louis; and Bill Judge and Christopher Mackie, Edwardsville. The production is being directed by Philip Vance, St. Louis.

Regular admission price to the SIUE production is $2. High school students and senior citizens will be admitted for $1. SIUE students will be admitted free.

Group rates for 15 persons or more is $1 each. For reservations, Quad-Cityans may call 692-2773, Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Patrons holding tickets are guaranteed seating until 8:10 each night of the performance.

Paddlers elect

Al Barnes was elected president of the Paddlers Swim Club during a meeting last week. Other new officers elected and installed include Roy Poncel, executive vice-president of operations; Don Grebe, vice-president of membership; Irene Hatcher, secretary; and Jan Polach, treasurer.

Committees announced during the session were program and budget, Rose Hiker; publicity, Jo Schnellmann; and co-chairmen of planning, Joe Hassler and Jerry Rango.

Officers announced that any person interested in acquiring stock may contact Grebe at 877-4012.

$500 FIRE LOSS

Fire of undetermined origin caused an estimated $500 damage to the auto of Anne Barnes, 3801 Lake Drive, in the parking lot of Lake Grade School, Highway 162 and East 23rd street. Firemen were on the scene 40 minutes after being called last week.

High school students in many fatal auto mishaps

Research that might reduce the relatively high accident rate among high school age people is being undertaken by the faculty in traffic safety at Illinois State University under a state grant.

The goal is an overall improvement of traffic safety education in Illinois public schools, in the hope of reducing the number of auto accidents, both fatal and non-fatal, involving young drivers.

National statistics for 1972 show that 28.7 per cent of all drivers in fatal accidents are between 15 and 24 years of age, although only 18.7 per cent of licensed drivers are in the same age group.

The situation is only slightly better in Illinois, where 27.3 per cent of all drivers in fatal accidents in 1972 were between 15 and 24.

Many of the programs at Illinois State U., Bloomington, Normal, are funded by the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, Springfield, and are centered in the traffic safety unit of Industrial Technology at ISU.

"If the tragic loss of lives of America public school children due to traffic accidents is to be reduced, then a comprehensive, well-designed and effective program of teacher education must be implemented into teacher education programs," according to an OSPI spokesman.

Illinois State has received a grant of $9,216 from OSPI to establish a freshman-senior high school traffic safety curriculum to enrich traditional sophomore course in Illinois public high schools.

Dr. Laurence Quane, project director, explains that his staff is working on the junior or senior year program, while faculty members at Southern Illinois University are concentrating on a freshman driver sequence.

Quane and his staff are gathering data on emergency driving, with the hope of improving the teaching of regaining control of an auto involved in a "collision-course" situation because of weather, mechanical failure or a driving error.

The ISU faculty also is involved with a larger project which is attempting to identify competencies all driver education teachers should have, and to develop instructional materials and methods to assist teachers in development of the required knowledge and skills.

"Teachers and prospective teachers will be encouraged to use traffic safety more often as the subject for term papers, reports, discussions and for mathematics or other problems," Quane explains.

On the Illinois State campus, students will have options of completing credit units on safety subjects in education courses taught with the assistance of a computerized learning laboratory.

Quane hopes that high school teachers of traditional subjects will become more involved with safety-oriented materials, and hopes to encourage this through workshops and high school faculty meetings.

Field testing of the expanded program for all four high school classes will take place at ISU's University High School in 1974-75 if the project is renewed. "If the project continues," Quane says, "U. High will be the first high school in the state to have a four-year traffic safety education program."

Demo candidates address meeting

Democratic candidates seeking election to county, judicial and district offices spoke at a regular meeting of the Madison County Young Democrats at the American Legion Hall, Edwardsville, last week.

Speakers included Circuit Judges John Gitchoff, William Johnson and Victor Mosele, and Don Brumett, candidate for state representative of the 56th district, and Evelyn Bowles, candidate for county clerk.

The group discussed plans for a dance to be held March 2 at Crofton Hall, Madison, beginning at 9 p.m., featuring a rock band, The Andrastrus. Donations will be $5 and tickets may be obtained from Jim Parker at 877-5413. Tickets will be delivered.

Mosele, Johnson vying for judicial post in primary

VICTOR J. MOSELE

William E. "Bill" Johnson, who has extensive experience as a magistrate and an associate judge, is seeking the circuit judge post formerly held by Judge Michael Kinney in the Democratic primary election March 19.

A resident of Edwardsville Rural Route Seven, the 43-year-old candidate was born on a farm and worked his way through college, attending Blackburn, Shurtleff, SIU, Washington and St. Louis University Law School.

He and his wife, Bernadine, a school teacher, have two daughters.

A former food company employee, sheet steel worker, glass worker, coal miner, adjuster and traffic manager, he then began a private law practice and has over eight and a half years of experience as a magistrate and associate judge. He served in the Army paratroopers and is a past member of the Madison County Mental Health Board, Kiwanis Club, Sheet Steel Workers Union, Glass Bottle Blowers Union and Coal Miners.

He is licensed to practice law in Illinois, Missouri and the federal courts.

Johnson has pledged to "stay absolutely independent of any pressures or chances of favoritism. I am financing my own campaign from savings, and I refuse to accept any contribution from any lawyers or anyone else."

The candidate proposes to tighten bail bond procedures, avoiding releases without consultation with police and the state's attorney. He would "eliminate indiscriminate probation."

Johnson favors disclosure under oath of all campaign gifts and expenditures for judicial candidates a week before and after all elections.

Circuit Judge Victor J. Mosele is one of two candidates in the March 19 Democratic primary election for the Third Judicial Circuit position he holds by appointment.

The post formerly was that of Circuit Judge Michael Kinney, who previously was Madison County judge.

Born Aug. 16, 1925, in Staunton, Ill., Judge Mosele attended public schools in Staunton.

He served two years in the U. S. Army, being honorably discharged in 1946, receiving the degree of doctor of jurisprudence.

Licensed in both Illinois and Missouri, he conducted a law practice in Alton and East Alton from 1953 until Dec. 4, 1972, when he was named by the Illinois Supreme Court to fill the circuit judge vacancy.

During his law practice, Mosele handled mostly trial work.

Since joining the Third Circuit, he has handled primarily criminal felony matters along with Presiding Criminal Judge John Gilchoff.

Mosele also has handled major civil litigation as a circuit judge.

Past president of the Madison County Bar Association, he was a member of the Alton-Wood River, Madison County and Illinois Bar Associations and was licensed to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court.

Mosele is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He and his wife, Doris June, a teacher at Roxana High School, have one daughter, Rebecca. He has been endorsed in the judicial election by the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education.

Heavy steel imports in '73 despite big world demand

Despite last year's strong worldwide demand for steel, U.S. imports of steel mill products held at a relatively high level during 1973.

According to government data supplied American Iron and Steel Institute, foreign producers shipped 15,150,000 tons of steel to this country last year. That was down from the 17,681,000 tons of steel imports recorded in 1972.

However, the decline was less than anticipated, given the tight supply-demand situation in the world steel market during 1973.

Steel prices abroad were higher than those U.S. producers could charge their domestic customers, and a large part of steel imports entered the U.S. market at higher prices than those prevailing domestically.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

The desire of foreign producers to maintain their established distribution systems and customer relationships in the U.S. undoubtedly prompted them to continue substantial exports to this country, despite market opportunities which existed in their home markets and other world markets.

Although total imports were down, the shift to higher value steel imports continued.

Imports of specialty tubing and tool steels were higher in 1973 than they had been the previous year. Imports of tin plate held close to their 1972 level, while foreign shipments of other alloy steels declined very little.

Foreign steel arriving in the U.S. last year had an average declared value of $186.22 per ton—up substantially from the previous year's $158 average declared value.

The 1973 U.S. trade deficit in steel mill products totaled $1,817,000,000.

Local subsidy to Chicago transit fought by Walters

Speaking before the Edwardsville Republican Women's Club last week, State Rep. Robert J. Walters said, "Madison County taxpayers will have to pay $1,854,000 to support the $36,000,000 Regional Transportation Authority each year if a referendum in the six-county Chicago metropolitan area is approved by voters March 19."

Walters based his figures on an analysis of each county's share of the $16 million being diverted from the state highway fund and the $80 million being diverted from the general revenue fund to permanently subsidize the Chicago Transit Authority's suburban commuter railroads and bus lines.

Walters reminded voters that he cast one of the 59 "no" votes in the House in an attempt to "save constituents from being forced to subsidize RTA for the rest of their lives."

He added, "Specifically, $363,000 of Madison County's highway funds will go to RTA while $1,491,000 of our county's sales tax receipts will be diverted to subsidize mass transportation in the Chicago area."

"Once people know about RTA, they will be against it because of the fact that downstate citizens will be paying the bill with little or no benefits. Madison County can ill afford to relinquish its sales tax and highway funds to the Chicago area."

LOOT SERVICE STATION
Burglars stole a grey fireproof box containing charge accounts worth about $125, a $40 adding machine and tools, of which the value has not been determined, from Bell Brothers Mobil service station, 2446 Washington Ave., it was reported Thursday. The lock on the front door was open and an office desk was ransacked. A red crowbar was found inside the station.

INSPECTING NEW BUILDING which will be occupied by the State Employment Service and Division of Unemployment Compensation at 1820 Cleveland Blvd., Thursday were State Sen. Sam M. Vadalabene, left, and Kenneth Holland, Illinois state director of labor. The officials also inspected the present offices of those divisions and met with employees. Similar stops were made Thursday in Alton and Edwardsville.

Meet on child abuse

"How can the community protect its children?" will be the topic of a public forum Tuesday for citizens of St. Clair, Madison, Monroe and Randolph counties.

The forum will focus on the problems of child abuse and neglect, as well as the development of a new child abuse investigating unit of the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services, according to Anthony Jenkins, the department's East St. Louis area administrator.

Sponsored jointly by the Children, Family and Youth Advocacy Council and DCF, the forum will be held from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the gymnasium at Maryville Children's Center in Maryville.

Located eight miles south of Edwardsville on Route 159 near the intersection of Interstate 55, the Children's Center also houses the department's new four-county child abuse investigating team. Department Director Jerome G. Miller, who will participate in the forum, hopes the meeting will lead to an effective cooperative approach to deal with the abuse problem.

"Child abuse is often a hushed-up issue which tends to be shouted about instead. It should be given high priority on everyone's list," Miller declared.

"Realizing the urgency of the problem, the Illinois legislature appropriated an additional $384,000 in special funds this year for child abuse control. The newly established investigating unit was set up with a portion of that special allocation," Miller explained. Jenkins said the unit consists of seven staff members who respond around-the-clock to reports of suspected maltreatment of children made to the child abuse hotline—345-6812.

Moderator of tomorrow's forum will be Willard B. Fisher, chairman of the resource committee for the Children, Family and Youth Advocacy Council, a local organization formed to ensure the development and delivery of comprehensive services to children and youth.

Jenkins encouraged all concerned citizens, including law enforcement officers, youth workers, physicians and nurses, teachers, parents, foster parents and children, to attend the forum and express their views.

"Child abuse is not just the kid's problem," he said. "And it is not just the parent's problem—it's the entire community's concern. To control it, we need to mobilize all resources at our command in a cooperative effort."

The Maryville forum is the eleventh in a series of "old-fashioned town meetings" being held by Children and Family Services throughout the state to bring about greater community involvement in the work of the agency.

Jenkins said that although the forum will focus on child abuse, he and Director Miller will welcome questions and comments from citizens on a broad range of issues concerning services to children and families.

Seek aid for fire victims

Aid for the family of Mrs. Rosemary Spink which includes five children from 2½ months to 17 years of age is being sought following a fire which destroyed all of the family's possessions at 4125 Braden Ave. last week.

Capt. Ron Kerley of the Salvation Army said that his office will accept donations of clothing, household furnishings or other items for the family.

The family consists of Mrs. Spink, three sons 9, 13 and 15 years old and two daughters, 20 months and 17 years old.

The fire, which began above a wall furnace, gutted the home and caused an estimated $9,500 damage. The family presently is staying at the home of Mrs. Spink's mother, Mrs. Martie Hall, 2128 Nevada Ave.

Meet on shortages of basic materials

Secretary of the Interior Rogers C. B. Morton will address a National Material Shortages Briefing Tuesday, April 9, in Chicago's Palmer House. The day-long meeting will be sponsored by the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce in response to shortages of certain basic raw materials facing manufacturers.

Morton will address a noon luncheon session. He is expected to discuss the energy crisis, shortages and the economic outlook.

The briefing, expected to attract business leaders from throughout the nation, will be held in conjunction with the U.S. Department of Interior, U.S. Department of Commerce and selected state, regional and national trade associations.

Experts representing a number of basic materials industries will present analyses and forecasts. Among commodities to be discussed are textile products, rubber and allied products, lumber and wood products, paper and allied products, petrochemicals, general chemicals, plastics, cement, iron and steel, and non-ferrous metals.

Lester W. Brann, Jr., president of the statewide business group, said businessmen's biggest problem today is "uncertainty and lack of authoritative information" about scarcities, what causes them, what the future holds and how business firms can better plan with shortages facing them.

"Purpose of this briefing is to get the answers for business from the industry experts who manufacture, process or distribute the scarce raw materials in question," Brann said.

"We must do everything possible to maintain the present level of growth in the economy and head off any future production curtailments, shutdowns and loss of jobs either through energy problems or the lack of raw materials and parts made from these materials."

"Official industry spokesmen and government officials will examine the present and future levels of shortages of the basic commodities, with emphasis on Illinois. They will also suggest what actions businessmen can take to secure sufficient materials for production, enabling them to better plan future production schedules."

Apathy could delay rapid transit plan

Sparse attendance at the second of two public hearings on a $381 million rapid transit plan for the metropolitan area may delay a decision by the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council on the rapid transit plan.

The second public hearing was held last week at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, and was as poorly attended as the first hearing at St. Louis University a week ago.

St. Louis County Supervisor Lawrence K. Roos, chairman of the Gateway Council, said Gateway directors have scheduled a March 13 meeting to discuss a staff recommendation for an 11-mile rapid transit line from East St. Louis to Clayton as the first phase of a 100-mile system.

William "Mike" Ebersold, Venice city clerk, told the hearing the plan should be presented at the grassroots level to people throughout the area.

Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison, a Gateway director, said he is not convinced rapid transit is needed as much in Illinois as in Missouri because the Illinois region is less urbanized.

Government Council discussed by group

Chester Baker, president of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, conducted a special meeting Wednesday evening of the Chamber Advisory Committee to discuss the proposed St. Louis Area Council of Local Governments.

"This is a plan to regionalize the area consisting of Madison, St. Clair, Clinton and Monroe Counties in Illinois, plus St. Louis City, St. Louis County and St. Charles, Jefferson and Franklin Counties in Missouri, in an attempt to do a better job of over-all planning for future development and qualifying for federal grants," a spokesman said.

"A lengthy discussion was held, giving each member a chance to speak and express his opinion as to whether or not it is a good plan for the Quad-City area. Many opinions were expressed—some for, some against—and most of them rather neutral because they are just not sure of what our position should be.

"It will be discussed again at the March board meeting in an effort to determine what position the local Chamber should take. It is something that all area residents should be interested in and should be thoroughly discussed before a decision is reached.

"It is the Chamber's opinion that it should represent all of the people in our community, and the opinion of other areas also should be considered before a definite position is taken," the spokesman concluded.

Court grants 8 divorces

Eight area couples have obtained divorces in Madison County Circuit Court. Divorced were:

Ether Atkins of Granite City from James Atkins. They were married July 23, 1936, in Dover, Tenn., and separated Dec. 6, 1967. Desertion was charged.

John Feldman from Linda Feldman (DeConcini), both of Granite City. They were married Oct. 23, 1965, in Edwardsville and separated June 30, 1973. Mental cruelty was charged. Custody of two children was granted to the mother and the father was ordered to pay $120 per month child support.

Patricia Ann Jordan from John Wesley Jordan, both of Granite City. They were married May 27, 1967, at St. Charles, Mo., and separated Feb. 1, 1972. Mental cruelty was charged. Custody of one child was granted to the mother and the father was ordered to pay $25 per week child support.

Steele urges media to present Illinois area in perspective, including its positive aspects

"For too many years, there has prevailed throughout much of the metropolitan St. Louis area a mistaken impression of a misunderstanding of much of the Madison St. Clair Counties area," Everett G. Steele said. "The Madison St. Clair Counties area, as Steele said, is seeking a Republican nomination as state representative."

"The time has come for the media of the St. Louis region to take a new look—and give a new emphasis as befits the 1970s, not the 1940s—in its coverage of Illinois events and conditions."

"One general misconception, widely held, is that East St. Louis is the core-center of the Illinois region," Steele said.

"While this may have been true 30 years ago, when East St. Louis represented 25 per cent of the population, this impression is no longer accurate."

"Due to tremendous growth in recent years, the Alton-Corbin-Wood River area, the Belleville-Fairview Heights-O'Fallon area and the Granite City-Nameoki Township vicinity have become larger centers of growth and population in the area."

"While East St. Louis is still a very important part of this region, it now represents about 12 per cent, not 25 per cent, of the population."

"The additional rapid growth in the Edwardsville-SIU-Glen Carbon-Collinsville communities has brought a new dimension to growth patterns and living conditions," Steele asserted.

"Many changes have taken place, a new day has emerged, and a new approach and emphasis to coverage by all the media of the St. Louis metropolitan area is now due."

"In the past, coverage has heavily dealt with various problems and conditions, overlooking, neglecting and leaving the public unaware of many favorable aspects of this region. To name just a few:

"We have the second largest population center in the state of Illinois, next only to Chicago. Its population is now approaching 600,000."

"The largest shopping center in the St. Louis region is now partly occupied and under construction in Illinois."

"One of the nation's most beautiful campuses is located at the SIU-Edwardsville, site of the summer Mississippi River Festival."

"The McAdams Highway, north of Alton, is one of the most scenic roads in the entire Midwest, as well as one of the last refuge areas for the American bald eagle."

"Industrial sites and port facilities, with unequalled access to river-rail-and interstate freeways, are available in abundance between Granite City and Alton."

"Sites of both national and international significance are the Our Lady of the Snows national shrine, near East St. Louis, and the Lewis and Clark Park, between Alton and Granite City, where can be seen the joining of the Missouri and Mississippi Rivers, making this river the longest in the world—a marvel often belied by visitors from other continents to area, but seldom recognized within the region."

"Some of the finest school systems and park systems in Illinois are here. As an example, the outdoor ice skating pavilion at Wilson Park in Granite City was the first of its kind in Southern Illinois."

"Picturesque, unconsented residential areas can be found in abundance, only 15 to 20 minutes from St. Louis. Edwardsville, with its tree-lined streets, is the home of four former governors of Illinois."

"Three state-supported junior colleges, at Godfrey, Belleville and East St. Louis, offer facilities as part of an advanced Illinois college system which is recognized as among the foremost of its kind in the nation."

"One of two dental schools within the St. Louis region is located at Alton."

"Many other features, such as the world's largest man-made Indian mound at Cahokia State Park, near Collinsville, could be cited."

"I believe the time is at hand—for all newspapers and other news media of the St. Louis region, to join together in an effort to strengthen public awareness of these notable and favorable aspects of the Illinois area."

"This must be done, to put the area in realistic perspective to a properly informed public, and to support our Illinois area in its efforts to assume a proper role in the progress of the St. Louis region," Steele concluded.

THE SCHIERMER BULLETIN

In spite of the rain last week, our Garden Shop was busy. Fertilizers are in short supply, so it might be well to lay in your supply right now.

We made a real buy on lemons. Check today's ad. Also note the fine buys on fish. Wednesday is the first day of Lent, but fish is the best meat buy today, and probably the healthiest meat for you: high protein and low fat. You can't beat that combination.

Our produce department continues to be the current "star of the store". We're continuing to come up with the "buns". Let's hope it continues. Still, believe these "buns" are the best. One of our customers came in and we noticed him counting the bananas in the bunch. We asked if we could help. He said, "No, I'm looking for a bunch that has nine bananas for my diet." We inquired further and he told us that he was starved and he told us that the first day you eat nothing but nine bananas and all the bananas, and the third day you substitute nine hard boiled eggs for the hot dogs. Sounds weird to us. We're not endorsing it; just thought it was very interesting.

We've noticed that a lot of our people seem to like to shop early on Thurs. However, the heat to come in because the Press-Record doesn't appear until late in the ad. So starting this Thursday we will be broadcasting our specials on WGN Radio 920 from 6:30 to 8:00 in the morning. So tune in and hear our specials and do your shopping early before the weekend rush.

Gitcho

However, one-sided officiating was distressingly prevalent in the wrestling meets, all won by the U.S.S.R., just as it has become evident in other sports in which the Russians participate.

A less formal and more good-natured rivalry during the tour was that between the American teammates. The other U. S. grapplers included Olympic and national champions but Gitcho gained recognition among them for his prowess, and several times was designated as the Russian champion. Vladimir Yumin, before Moscow stadium crowd, and nationally televised audience saw him lose a 4-1 lead then rally from a tie by gaining a takedown.

World Invitational Champion competition at warm thibis, contrasting with Moscow's cold, throughout the tour. Other locations of meets in Russia included Kiev and Minsk.

Gitcho attributes much of his success to the tutoring of William "Red" Schmitt, his Granite City High School (South) coach, and Larry Kristoff, Cougar wrestling mentor.

He also learned from the Russians—as well as teaching them a few tactics of his own—and found his technique sound and his confidence growing as the overseas tour progressed, whetting his appetite for additional international bouts.

United way

In consulting with the agencies on the financial needs, "Your board of directors approved the change in name of the organization from the Tri-Cities Area United Fund to the Tri-Cities Area United Way, Inc. This was done to benefit from the national publicity."

"The board also approved the reduction of its members from the present 75 members to 30 members. This will be accomplished over a period of three years."

"We are presently in the process of forming the Planning Committee which will evaluate the effectiveness of the service delivery system in our community."

"The United Way movement is dedicated to serving the needs of people."

"People and groups within our community want to feel we are for real—that we genuinely care and that we are raising money, not to perpetuate mediocrity, but to achieve excellence in our service to the community."

"With your help and cooperation our aims will be reached." Kelly concluded.

These elected three-year terms as board members were William H. Albers, Clyde "Bus" Boyd, David Brooks, Phillip Dressel, William Guthrie, Theodore Kemp, Mrs. Mary Tarpest, John Ubaldi, Richard West and W. F. Winter.

Officers and board nominations were submitted by a committee composed of Dr. Stanley Maer, chairman, plus Barry Freedman, Thomas Griffin, Norman Hall and M. B. Milonski.

Man held in Venice robbery

One man was being held on a robbery charge, another suspect was in custody in East St. Louis and two others were being sought by Madison police today following Sunday morning.

Police said they are holding Duane Porter, 20, of East St. Louis on a charge of armed robbery of American Legion Post 799 at 1043 Douglas St., Venice.

Porter was arrested by Venice and Madison police following a high speed chase through the city, occupants of a fleeing car fired a shotgun blast at Madison Police Officer Sgt. Ronald Grzywacz, who attempted to block the vehicle.

Madison police reported that two armed men held up Garrett's Lounge, Second and Jackson streets, Madison, at 9:15 p.m. Saturday.

Witnesses told officers the robbers entered the place, fired a shot into the ceiling and announced they were a holdup. They emptied the cash register and a cigar box behind the bar and an undetermined amount of cash and took a $750 mink stole from a customer, Greg Winston, 29, of Madison, according to police.

The robbers were William Garrett, 37, of Venice, and the bartender, John Garrett, 47, of Madison. About 1:50 a.m. Sunday, Madison officers reported they saw two men acting suspiciously in the vicinity of Merceda and Calhoun streets.

The men walked to the car and fired a shotgun blast at police following.

While following the car, the officers received a radio report that American Legion Post 799 in Venice had been robbed a few minutes earlier.

Sgt. Grzywacz attempted to block the car at McKinley and Broadway, but the car escaped and fired a shotgun blast at the officer. Grzywacz returned the fire and gave chase.

With Madison and Venice police in pursuit, the car turned left from Broadway into Fourth Street and headed south toward Brooklyn. The car went out of control near the highway and ran into a ditch.

Police said one man jumped out on the driver's side and the other man jumped out the right side of the car. Police arrested Porter a short time later.

Officers said they found a sawed-off shotgun and a pillowcase containing $478 on the rear seat of the car and a 12-gauge shotgun loaded with a deer slug on the rear floor.

Venice police said this morning that a suspect is being held in East St. Louis and that warrants were being obtained to return him to Venice. Porter, 20, was to be arraigned in court later today.

Precincts checked on loyalty to ticket

Some Democratic committee members in Madison County are unhappy with a letter sent by the Madison County Democratic Committee asking them to report which, if any, endorsed candidates they will not back in the March 19 primary.

"Since most of the endorsed candidates are furnishing the funds with which to pay all campaign expenses, it naturally follows that a proportionate reduction in campaign allocation should be made in distribution of funds to those committee members who do not support certain endorsed candidates," the letter by Chairman Walter T. Simmons relates.

The church borrowed the funds to secure the plane's release and the U.S. govern-

Continue investigation of Cosgrove murder case

Leo T. Cosgrove, 48, of Edwardsville, a former Madison resident, was cremated Friday morning at the Chapel of Memories, St. Louis. He was fatally shot while seated at the bar at Tony and Joe's Tavern, Third Street and Madison Avenue, Madison, Wednesday evening.

Reporters say Cosgrove and seven persons were in the tavern when the shooting occurred. He reportedly had entered, ordered a drink, made a telephone call, purchased a package of cigarettes and had just sat down to have his drink when two men entered.

One stood at the doorway while the other approached Cosgrove and placed a pistol at the victim's head. Cosgrove had time only to turn his head slightly before he was discharged, the bullet striking him in his left cheek.

Examination of the body and X-rays showed the bullet struck a nasal bone and deflected backward through the brain. The two men then walked from the front door of the tavern.

An employee called Madison police, who were warned by a telephone call that Cosgrove was being shot. The gunman might still be in the area.

No apparent alternative to authorizing a higher Venice school tax rate

Venice Community Unit School District residents already have experienced some of the problems associated with a squeeze between available revenue and spending obligations. The size of the faculty has been trimmed in recent years, and funds for many undertakings have been limited.

Whether more severe cutbacks will prove necessary will largely be determined by Friday's tax referendum, the third in a span of less than a year. A $1.20 tax rate limit increase per $100 assessed valuation was defeated in June and an 80-cent hike lost in December.

The current proposal, again specifying an 80-cent boost in the school tax rate ceiling, is being considered by Venice voters at a time when the Belleville Elementary District board has just decided to close its 13 schools April 1 due to lack of money. There have been numerous school rate election defeats in Belleville.

Deep concern among officials, citizens over sewer break repair program

Growing concern by citizens and officials about Granite City's sanitary sewer break repair program centers on six points:

1. Awareness that the contractor has been convicted in federal court of rigging sanitary sewer installation bids in a federally-aided 1971 East St. Louis project.
2. Realization that the Granite City repairs also involve federal funds. The East St. Louis conviction could involve suspension from federal work.
3. The limited number of local bidders, and the diversity and unusual nature of the bids received and acted on by Granite City last June.
4. With more than $1 million already expended here, continuing uncertainty over the total scope and cost of the work being carried out here.
5. The apparently open-end nature of the contract, which continues in

The problem in the county to the south of here illustrates the fact that Illinois public school systems cannot be operated in the 1970s without property owners being willing to make a considerable financial commitment to provide operating funds.

State revisions in the way property taxes are applied, including elimination of the personal property tax on individuals, have led to a steady erosion of the Venice school system's assessment total. Costs, meanwhile, have had to rise due to the impact of inflation on salaries, supplies and equipment.

With no alternative solutions in view, it appears inevitable that the Venice schools' education fund rate will need to rise, and this requires authorization by voters. Failure of the March 1 referendum could lead to added election costs and also a heavy burden of interest payments on borrowed funds.

effect as new, previously unpredictable breaks occur.

6. Worry over whether revision of local procedures might lead to a less costly way of achieving needed repairs.

The latter point was noted at last week's Granite City Council meeting when aldermen authorized purchase of three submersible pumps by the city street department. The electrically-operated pumps can be used around the clock with a minimum of maintenance, replacing present gasoline pumps that require one or two men in constant attendance at each break where there is bypass pumping.

Perhaps additional steps should be taken.

The overall problem is so acute that it deserves the attention, thought and suggestions of all parties involved, including the taxpayer public.

Statehouse far from poverty row

SPRINGFIELD — Politics pays well in Illinois. Despite occasional gripes that it's difficult to attract people to state government jobs, current salaries, state government remains far from poverty row.

In the executive branch alone, there are more than 300 $20,000-a-year or better jobs not including those on contracts. Computerization of the state comptroller's office now makes it possible to readily pinpoint those jobs, and the November payroll, most recent for which figures are available, shows the good jobs.

Gov. Daniel Walker has complained of problems in hiring people away from private industry, but his employees have fared well. Among the payrolls for the state's executive office, Office of Human Resources, Bureau of the Budget and Illinois Law Enforcement Commission are 47 employees (out of about 335) making $20,000.

year or more — and this doesn't include all the code departments, commissions and agencies under the governor.

Included in the 47 are 13 paid $30,000 or more. Victor A. Grazia, deputy to the governor, is the highest paid Walker assistant at $35,000 a year, $11,500 a year less than Walker's salary. ILEC director David Fogel is paid $35,000 and Daniel Benhke is on the ILEC payroll at $30,000. BOB director Kay Hovey is paid $34,750 and has three $30,000 or more employees — Vernon Shontz, ($31,541), Richard Carlson ($30,120) and Mary Le Leahy ($30,000). Brenetta Barrett, director of the Governor's Office of Human Resources, gets $31,776 a year. Walker's "legal eagles," William Goldberg and Chester Kohn, are paid $35,000 and $30,000, respectively.

Walker adds to $30,000-a-year are press secretaries, foreign policy, the peace and economic welfare of the world depend upon our foreign relationships; and political reform is another area for serious discussion. Watergate has focused much of the attention on the subject of political reform. I began an effort a little more than a year ago to focus attention on the Congress, and that effort led to a number of proposals for budgetary reform, congressional reorganization, campaign financing. ... I would hope now we could begin to put some of that effort back on congressional reform.

Podgajny-Mandl nuptials at Grace Baptist Church

Arrangements of white flowers and greenery, together with burning tapers in candleholders, decorated the altar of Grace Baptist Church for the wedding Saturday of Miss Dana Lynn Mandl and Thaddeus J. Podgajny. White satin bows marked the family pews.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Ernest L. Hopkins, 3226 Princeton Drive, and Karl O. Mandl of East St. Louis. The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Podgajny, reside at 11 Shirwin Drive.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony at 11 a.m. were the Rev. Bill Fox and the Rev. William Duval.

Mrs. William Ellsworth, organist, performed "Arabesque" by Debussy and "Vocalise" by Rachmaninoff during the service.

A bridal gown of white maracaine and Venice lace was selected by the former Miss Mandl.

Her floor length gown was fashioned with a high collar and long fitted sleeves. Venice lace traced the collar, cuffs and waistline and trimmed the front bodice, creating a key-hole effect.

The Empire waist draped softly into an A-line silhouette skirt and a chapel length train. A stand-up crown enhanced with lace was attached to an illusion veil, bordered in Venice lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses, pink rosebuds and baby breath.

Miss Tracie Ann Mandl, the bride's sister, was maid of honor and her only attendant. She wore a flowering gown designed with an illusion Venice lace bodice and a slightly gathered mint green tulle skirt.

The Empire bodice had a high ruffled collar and the bishop sleeves ended in a ruffle at the wrist. Bright green ribbon encircled the waistline, terminating in a bow and cascading streamers down the back.

On her hair she wore a double bow headpiece of matching ribbon and streamers and she held a cascade of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hopkins chose a full length gown of hot pink jersey made with long fitted sleeves, a key-hole neckline and a high collar. Iridescent appliques accented the center of the Empire waist, detailed with a gathered sash.

Mrs. Podgajny was attired in pale blue polyester satin. The floor length frock was accented with a ruffled V neckline and long fitted sleeves with a ruffle around the wrist.

Both mothers wore silver accessories and white carnation corsages.

Frank W. Podgajny, the groom's brother, served as best man. Seating the guests were Foster H. Barnes and Donald E. Heck, brother-in-law of the groom.

A wedding luncheon was served in the church hall immediately following the ceremony. The rehearsal dinner was given Thursday evening at Charles Restaurant.

Mrs. Donald E. Heck, the bridegroom's sister, presided over the guest book.

The former Miss Mandl is employed at McDonnell-Douglas Automation Co. Her husband works for Richardson Chemical Co.

Both are graduates of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Podgajny will make their future home in Granite City.

MRS. THADDEUS J. PODGAJNY. She is the former Dana Lynn Mandl, a daughter of Mrs. Ernest L. Hopkins, 3226 Princeton Drive, and Karl O. Mandl of East St. Louis. She was married Saturday at Grace Baptist Church. (Haury Studio)

Dependability

For maximum efficiency in emergencies, first class Fire Departments are vitally dependent upon adequate flows of water. During 1973 your Water Company installed 27,900 feet of mains to replace those of inadequate size in order to keep abreast of modern fire fighting standards and design. This also helps to secure the lowest possible fire insurance rating for the many communities we serve.

DAV Auxiliary to aid 'missing' project

The Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary of Granite City is helping the MIA (missing-in-action) issue that is gathering support throughout the nation.

At an auxiliary meeting last week at the DAV Hall, 1417 Nineteenth St., the members voted to co-sponsor a "Ping Pong Ball Program" with the MIA-POW office at Scott Air Force Base, Belleville.

Local officers explained that members will fill egg cartons with ping pong balls that have been inscribed with the names of men who still are listed as missing-in-action. Also, a blue forget-me-not, the DAV symbol flower, will be attached to each ping pong ball.

The filled egg cartons will then be mailed to U.S. senators and congressmen.

Hopefully, the ping pong program will bring to the attention of all branches of government that a year has passed since the POWs returned home

Area Manager

The Newcomers Club met last week at the Brunswick Tri-Mor Bowl, 3701 Nameoki Road, and heard a guest speaker, Mrs. Janet Williams, physical education instructor at Granite City High School South.

Two guests present at the meeting were Mrs. Jody Little of Canton, Ill. and Mrs. Mary Reinacher of Collinsville.

Anyone who is a "Newcomer" to Granite City is invited to attend the March 18 meeting of the club at the Tri-Mor Bowl at 7:30 p.m., officers announced.

Dug the business meeting, a family picnic date was set for June 2 at Wilson Park and a couples' bowling event was arranged for March 16 at the Tri-Mor Bowl.

Mrs. Donna Kadell and Mrs. Belinda Johnson were hostesses at the meeting.

LACLEDE STEEL COMPANY RECOGNIZES SAFE WORKERS

The Laclede Steel Company employees whose names and pictures appear on this page are living proof that the most effective safety device is the trained, safety minded employee.

Each year for more than a decade Laclede has recognized those steelworkers who have worked for five years or more without a lost time accident. A lapel pin is awarded for each five-year period of accident-free employment.

Pictured and listed below are the employees who received this safety award at the end of 1973.

The combined total of no-accident experience for these employees is 1060 years.

In addition, 270 other Laclede employees at Madison not pictured or listed, completed a combined total of 4977 years of service without a lost time accident. Their individual safety records range from one year to thirty-nine years.

Laclede is proud of these safe working employees and we think friends and neighbors will be, too.

State lists proposed rules for bargaining

Draft rules and regulations on collective bargaining for state employees — including a list of unfair labor practices and an outline for bargaining procedures — were issued Thursday by Nolan B. Jones, director of the Department of Personnel.

Executive Order No. 6-1973, issued last September, grants collective bargaining rights to state employees under jurisdiction of the governor.

The proposed rules and regulations implement provisions of the order and of the personnel director's statutory duty under the Personnel Code to conduct negotiations.

In its section on unfair labor practices, the proposal forbids state executives covered and their representatives to interfere with, restrain or coerce employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed in the Executive Order.

Dominate or interfere with the formation, existence or administration of any employee organization or unlawfully assist an employee organization.

Discriminate in regard to hiring or tenure of employment, or in terms or condition of employment to encourage or discourage membership in any employee organization, and

Refuse to bargain collectively in good faith with a recognized representative of the employees in an appropriate unit.

Employment organizations are similarly prohibited from coercive or restraining activities and from refusing to bargain collectively in good faith with the employer.

The proposal includes procedures for employees to follow in seeking certification for their group as a bargaining unit, decertification of a bargaining unit or changes in the unit's scope.

Procedures for elections and other methods of determining bargaining units are outlined.

The rules provide for selection of a mediator when either management or the employee group requests one.

Further dispute settlement rules are outlined, but at no point can a mandatory settlement be imposed.

All settlements, whether or not a mediator is involved in the negotiations, must be voluntary, Jones said.
